BLUE RODEO IN DECEMBER IS A MUST-SEE!

(Niagara Falls, ON) October 11, 2022 – Legendary Canadian band Blue Rodeo will be sending fans head over heels December 10 at the OLG Stage at Fallsview Casino.

Over the span of three decades, the multiple Juno Award-winning performers have developed a global fan base thanks to their approachable sound and unforgettable live performances. They have been called one of the best live bands to ever come out of Canada.

"Canadian icons performing in Niagara Falls during the festive season; what could be better?" asks Cathy Price, Niagara Casinos Vice President of Marketing. "Blue Rodeo is going to heat up the OLG Stage at Fallsview Casino and I can't wait!"

Formed in the early 1980s by Jim Cuddy and Greg Keelor, the two Toronto high school friends released their debut album Outskirts in 1987. This resulted in a string of popular releases, including chart-topping singles such as Try, Til I Am Myself Again, and Head over Heels. Their success continued in the early 2000s with five Top-10 albums and a star on Canada's Walk of Fame. Today, they continue to impress with their time-honored sound and undeniable onstage chemistry.

"Without a doubt Blue Rodeo are leaders on the Canadian music scene," says Price. "Since their start, the talent and presence they have shown has made them endeared as mentors for other Canadian acts to follow."

The OLG Stage at Fallsview Casino is an all-ages venue; children 12 years of age or under must be accompanied by an adult and require a ticket.
